

Transplant TV Movie Night

Saturday, Sept 21st

6:00 to 9:00pm

Feature show: "The Grace Card"

After police officer Mac McDonald loses his son in an accident, years of bitterness and pain erodes his love for his family and leaves him angry with God ... and everyone else. Can Mac and his new patrol partner, Sgt. Sam Wright, somehow join forces to help one another when it's impossible to look past their differences—especially the most obvious one? Every day, we have the opportunity to rebuild relationships and heal wounds by extending and receiving God's grace.

Come join fellow transplant recipients, donor families and friends for our next transplant movie night. The show is free and will be held in the 4th floor conference center at the Gift of Life offices, 401 N 3rd St, Philadelphia. Please RSVP to event organizer, Jim Gleason, at gleasonjim@aol.com or leave a voice message at 609-877-4493 with your name, phone # and the number attending.

Note: There are soda machines available but feel free to bring your own as refreshments will not be provided. Our sponsoring groups may be hosting information tables to make you familiar with their mission and offerings. This is the next of our continuing popular "transplant movie nights" and we hope you and your family/friends will come and enjoy a fun night together.
