

Transplant TV Movie Night

Saturday, Apr 24th

6:00 to 9:00pm

Feature show: "Heart of a Stranger"

Based on the true life story of 1988 heart-lung recipient, Claire Sylvia. this made for cable Lifetime TV adaptation of Claire's biography, Change of Heart, tells of her coming to know about her donor through dreams. Searching based on that information, played in the movie by Jane Seymour, she connects with her donor family to find the dream information is accurate. This well known story is often cited as the basis for theories about "cellular memory" that try to explain reports of recipients having "memories" from their donor through the organ transplant process.
