

Transplant Movie Night

Saturday, Dec 17th

6:00 to 9:00pm

Feature show: "The Christmas Hope"

The third in our trilogy of holiday movies, The Christmas Hope follows the story begun in The Christmas Shoes, as developed in The Christmas Blessing and now we see some of those same lives intertwine during Christmas again, with hope as the one unifying gift. It's through the love of one little girl that the lives of many are brought together during what turns out to be a most joyful time of the year.

You're Invited . . .

Come join fellow transplant recipients, donor families and friends for our next transplant movie night. The show is free and will be held in the 4th floor conference center at the Gift of Life offices, 401 N 3rd St, Philadelphia. Please RSVP to event organizer, Jim Gleason, at gleasonjim@aol.com or leave a voice message at 609-877-4493 with your name, phone # and the number attending.

Note: There are soda machines available but feel free to bring your own as refreshments will not be provided. Our sponsoring groups may be hosting information tables to make you familiar with their mission and offerings. This is the next of our continuing popular "transplant movie nights" and we hope you and your family/friends will come and enjoy a fun night together.
